Meet Lazara B. Santana, the passionate Cuban bassoonist making beautiful music in Atlanta, Georgia! Hailing from Cienfuegos City in Cuba, Lazara's musical journey began at a young age, leading her to excel at the National School of Music and Havana's University of the Arts. With honors in her pocket, she graced the stages of prestigious orchestras like the Havana Lyceum Orchestra and the National Symphony Orchestra of Cuba.

Lazara's performances have delighted audiences worldwide, collaborating with esteemed directors and international soloists. She's played in renowned venues such as the Kennedy Center and the Konzerthaus in Berlin, leaving a lasting impression.

In May 2023, Lazara completed her Master's Degree in Musical Performance at Georgia State University, shining as a talented musician and educator. At the same time, she continues to pursue her biggest passion, which is performing. With unwavering dedication, Lazara finds her place on stage, captivating audiences with her exceptional skills and musical expression.

As a dedicated educator, Lazara Santana seeks to have a positive impact on the next generations of worldwide musicians, nurturing and inspiring them to follow their musical dreams. Her humility and boundless passion for music make her an invaluable role model in the world of music education and performance.
