

Hi everyone! My name is Erin Cundiff. I have played trombone for 15 years, and I've taught music and played professionally for the past 8 years. I have always had a passion for music and teaching. I studied music at the University of Georgia, and I was the trombone section leader of the marching band. I also played in a wide variety of ensembles in college, including the wind ensemble, orchestra, jazz band, and trombone choir. I was a middle school band director for 2 years at Loganville Middle School. Now, my specialty is teaching private lessons and sectionals full time in the metro-Atlanta area. I also perform regularly with several different ensembles including US Beat, Atlanta Beat, A1A, The 293 Band, and Big Night Dynamite. One of my favorite things to do is play in "the pit" for musicals. Outside of music and teaching, I love traveling, family, friends, nature, running, and I speak French!

For private lesson information, email ecundiff92@gmail.com.