

Robert Dickens Jr. is an educator, arranger, + visual designer from Dothan, AL. He received his Bachelor of Music Industry from Troy University while performing with myriad collegiate ensembles as well as The GLASSMEN Drum & Bugle Corps.

In his 7th year at Chattahoochee High School he serves as program coordinator, visual designer, + director of percussion for the program. He is a SABIAN + Innovative Percussion artist + endorses their products exclusively. Robert serves as the percussion liaison between Taylor Road Middle and CHS.